

Free Application for Federal Student Aid

OMB 1840-0110

July 1, 1999 — June 30, 2000 school year

FAFSA.PDF

Use this form to apply for federal student grants, work-study money, and loans.

You can also apply over the internet at: <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov> instead of using this paper form. In addition to federal student aid, you may also be eligible for a Hope or a Lifetime Learning income tax credit, both of which you claim when you file your taxes. For more information on these tax credits, this application, and the U.S. Department of Education's student aid programs, call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243) Monday through Friday between 8:00am and 8:00pm eastern time or look on the internet at <http://www.ed.gov/offices/OPE>. If you are hearing impaired, call TDD 1-800-730-8913.

- Use black ink or #2 pencil and fill in ovals completely, like this:
- Print clearly in CAPITAL letters and skip a box between words:
- Report dollar amounts (such as $12,356.00) like this:
- Write numbers less than 10 with a zero (0) first:

FAFSA.PDF

1. Print the application on white paper.
2. Read this page.
3. Go to page 3 and begin filling out the application. Complete pages 3 through 6, and the worksheets on page 8, referring to notes on pages 2 and 7 as necessary.
4. Make a copy of pages 3–6 for your records. Keep page 8 (worksheets) with this copy. Your school may ask to see it.
5. Mail the original pages 3–6 to Federal Student Aid Programs, P.O. Box 4008, Mt. Vernon, IL 62864-8608. Send only pages 3, 4, 5, and 6. Send in this application only between January 1, 1999, and June 30, 2000.
6. You should hear from us within four weeks. If you do not, please call 1-800-433-3243.

- If you are filing a 1998 income tax return, we recommend that you fill it out before completing this form. However, you do not need to send your income tax return to the IRS before you fill out this form.
- If you or your family has unusual circumstances (such as loss of employment or major medical expenses) that might affect your need for student financial aid, check with the financial aid office at the college you plan to attend.
- With this form you may also be able to apply for student aid from other sources, such as your state or college. The deadlines for states (see below) or colleges may be as early as January 1999, and you may be required to complete additional forms.

Deadline dates for state aid. Generally, state aid comes from your state of legal residence. Check with your high school guidance counselor or the financial aid administrator at your college about state and college sources of student financial aid. State deadlines are below.

Notes for questions 14–15 (page 3)

If you are an eligible noncitizen, write in your eight or nine digit Alien Registration Number. Generally, you are an eligible noncitizen if you are: (1) a U.S. permanent resident and you have an Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151 or I-551); (2) a conditional permanent resident (I-151C); or (3) an other eligible noncitizen with an Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service showing any one of the following designations: “Refugee,” “Asylum Granted,” “Indefinite Parole,” “Humanitarian Parole,” or “Cuban-Haitian Entrant.” If you are in the U.S. on only an F1 or F2 student visa, or only a J1 or J2 exchange visitor visa, or a G series visa (pertaining to international organizations), you must fill in oval c. If you are neither a citizen nor eligible noncitizen, you are not eligible for federal student aid. However, you may be eligible for state or college aid, and, thus, you should still consider filling out this form.

Notes for questions 39 c. and d. (page 4) and 62 c. and d. (page 5)

If you filed or will file a foreign tax return, use the information from your foreign tax return to fill out this form. Convert all figures to U.S. dollars, using the exchange rate that is in effect today.

If you filed or will file a tax return with Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or Palau, use the information from these tax returns to fill out this form.

Notes for questions 40 (page 4) and 63 (page 5)

In general, a person is eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ if the person makes less than $50,000, does not itemize deductions, does not receive income from his or her own business or farm, and does not receive alimony or capital gains. The person is not eligible if the person receives self-employment income, alimony, capital gains, or itemizes deductions.

Notes for questions 43 (page 4) and 66 (page 5) — only for people who filed a 1040EZ

On the 1040EZ, if a person answered “Yes” on line 5, use worksheet line F to determine the number of exemptions ($2700 equals one exemption). If a person answered “No” on line 5, enter 01 if the person is single, or 02 if the person is married.

Net worth means current value minus debt.

Investments include real estate (other than your home), trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, etc. Investment value includes the market value of these investments. Do not include the value of life insurance and retirement plans (pension funds, annuities, IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.) or the value of prepaid tuition plans. Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Business value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, and inventory. Business debt means only those debts for which the business was used as collateral.

Answer “Yes” (you are a veteran) if (1) you have engaged in active service in the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard), or were a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies, and (2) you were released under a condition other than dishonorable. You should also answer “Yes” if you are not a veteran now but will be one by June 30, 2000.

Answer “No” (you are not a veteran) if (1) you have never served in the U.S. Armed Forces, or (2) you are an ROTC student, a cadet or midshipman at a service academy, or a National Guard or Reserves enlistee (and were not activated for duty). You should also answer “No” if you are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces and will continue to serve through June 30, 2000.

For 38-52, if you are now married (even if you were not married in 1998), report both your and your spouse's income and assets. If you are not married, answer these questions about you and ignore the references to "spouse." If the answer is zero or the question does not apply to you, enter 0.

Include in your household:

- yourself (and your spouse, if you have one), and
- your children, if you provide more than half of their support, and
- other people if they now live with you, and you provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000.

Notes for questions 60 (page 4) and 78 (page 5)

Count yourself as a college student even if you will attend college less than half time in 1999-2000. Include others only if they will attend at least half time in 1999-2000 in a program that leads to a college degree or certificate.

Notes for questions 61–82 (page 5) Step Four: Who is considered a parent in this Step?

If your parents are both living and married to each other, answer the questions about them. (You will be providing information about two people.)

If your parent is widowed or single, answer the questions about that parent. (You will be providing information about one person.) If your widowed parent has remarried as of today, answer the questions about that parent and the person whom your parent married. (You will be providing information about two people.)

If your parents have divorced or separated, answer the questions about the parent you lived with most during the past 12 months. If you did not live with one parent more than with the other, answer in terms of the parent who provided the most financial support during the last 12 months, or during the most recent year that you actually were supported by a parent. (You will be providing information about one person.) If this parent has remarried as of today, answer the questions on the rest of this form about that parent and the person whom your parent married. (You will be providing information about two people.)

Include in your parents' household:

- yourself and your parents, and
- your parents' other children if (a) your parents provide more than half of their support or (b) the children could answer "No" to every question in Step Two, and
- other people if they now live with your parents, your parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000.

Information on the Privacy Act and use of your Social Security Number.

We use the information that you provide on this form to determine if you are eligible to receive federal student financial aid and the amount that you are eligible to receive. Section 483 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, gives us the authority to ask you these questions and to collect your social security number.

State and institutional student financial aid programs may also use the information that you provide on this form to determine if you are eligible to receive state and institutional aid and the need that you have for such aid. Therefore, we will disclose the information that you provide on this form to each institution you list in questions 83–93, state agencies in your state of legal residence, and the state agencies of the states in which the colleges that you list in questions 83–93 are located.

If you are applying solely for federal aid, you must answer all of the following questions that apply to you: 1–9, 14–16, 25, 28–29, 32–33, 38–42, 44–65, 67–79, 82, and 95–96. If you do not answer these questions, you will not receive federal aid.

Without your consent, we may disclose information that you provide to entities under a published "routine use." Under such a routine use, we may disclose information to third parties that we have authorized to assist us in administering the above programs; to other federal agencies under computer matching programs, such as those with the Social Security Administration, Selective Service System, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and Veterans Administration; to your parents or spouse; and to members of Congress if you ask them to help you with student aid questions.

If the federal government, the U.S. Department of Education, or an employee of the U.S. Department of Education is involved in litigation, we may send information to the Department of Justice, or a court or adjudicative body, if the disclosure is related to financial aid and certain conditions are met. In addition, we may send your information to a foreign, federal, state, or local enforcement agency if the information that you submitted indicates a violation or potential violation of law, for which that agency has jurisdiction for investigation or prosecution. Finally, we may send information regarding a claim that is determined to be valid and overdue to a consumer reporting agency. This information includes identifiers from the record; the amount, status, and history of the claim; and the program under which the claim arose.

State Certification.

By submitting this application, you are giving your state financial aid agency permission to verify any statement on this form and to obtain income tax information for all persons required to report income on this form.

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 says that no one is required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number, which for this form is 1840-0110. The time required to complete this form is estimated to be one hour per response, including time to review instructions, search data resources, gather the data needed, and complete and review the information collection. If you have comments about this estimate or suggestions for improving this form, please write to: U.S. Department of Education, Washington DC 20202-4651.
